

PEELmagazine #5 Fall 2005 the Collaboration Issue

PEELmagazine is a full color print publication dedicated to showcasing the emerging artforms of sticker and stencil street art as well as the surrounding culture. Each issue comes with stickers designed by the featured artists and 500 special edition copies are polybagged with stickers handmade or produced by the artists.

The print run for issue 5 is 3,000 copies. Distributed by Tower Records in the US and several independent book/record stores in the US and overseas. The first 3 issues of PEEL have sold out.

PEEL5 will be released in late summer or early fall 2005 and carry a theme of collaboration, focusing on the current trend of artists working in pairs or groups and creating exciting new kinds of art.

*The featured artists for the issue:

Buff Monster	(Los Angeles)
